

ECCLESIASTES

ENJOY YOUR LIFE; DON'T JUST GET THROUGH THE DAYS

Live in This Season, Don't Just Get Through It

September 20, 2026 - Week Two

1 There is a time for everything, and a season for every activity under the heavens: 2 a time to be born and a time to die, a time to plant and a time to uproot, 3 a time to kill and a time to heal, a time to tear down and a time to build, 4 a time to weep and a time to laugh, a time to mourn and a time to dance, 5 a time to scatter stones and a time to gather them, a time to embrace and a time to refrain from embracing, 6 a time to search and a time to give up, a time to keep and a time to throw away, 7 a time to tear and a time to mend, a time to be silent and a time to speak, 8 a time to love and a time to hate, a time for war and a time for peace. 9 What do workers gain from their toil? 10 I have seen the burden God has laid on the human race. 11a He has made everything beautiful in its time.

>> So often in our lives we are trying to get to the next season instead of letting God make something beautiful in the season we are in.

>> Looking towards another season doesn't put you in another season, it just robs you of fully living in the one you are in.

>> Changing the season you are in does not change you.

>> There are no wasted seasons with God.

Ecclesiastes 3:11-13

11 He has made everything beautiful in its time. He has also set eternity in the human heart; yet no one can fathom what God has done from beginning to end. 12 I know that there is nothing better for people than to be happy and to do good while they live. 13 That each of them may eat and drink, and find satisfaction in all their toil—this is the gift of God.

1. What is God trying to grow in me in this season?
2. What is there in this season to enjoy?
3. What is God asking me to trust him with in this season?
